Can you solve the cipher above and make a meaningful sentence out of it? Well if you can then you are made for this event. Crypto Quest is back again for the third time in EDGE with a lot of thrills and surprises. Well, in this event you need to be calm and gather all your wits to make meaning of most of the questions. Get ready for a cryptic experience!!!

Team Size:-

A team can consist of at most 2 members (Single member teams are also allowed).

Event Timeline and Rules:-

- Various questions involving ciphers and steganography will be provided to you.
- You will simply have to give us the flags, which will be hidden within the questions.
- Knowledge of computer programming won't be required to solve the problems.
- Although the event will be conducted on Linux, absolutely no knowledge of Linux will be required to solve the problems.
- Teams won't be allowed to use any external electronic devices.
- Internet Access may be provided to the participants. In case it is not, we will provide you with almost all the knowledge, you will require to crack the questions.
